Vince Synan is the Director of Advanced Planning for MassMutual Oklahoma out of the Oklahoma City offices. His principal areas of practice are estate transfer planning, as well as business transition planning. Vince works with tax, legal and financial advisors both regionally and nationally to achieve the best strategy for clients. He entered the industry in 1990 and has been developing strategies for affluent individuals and business owner clients of MassMutual Oklahoma associates and associated professionals for over 19 years.

He is a past committee member of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors and of the Oklahoma Planned Giving Council. Vince currently serves as a field member on the MassMutual BDAX Technology and Marketing Committee (2009-2014), the AAX Life Products Development Committee (2010-2014), the AAX Illustrations Committee (2010-2014) and the AAX Advanced Sales sub-committee (2010-2014).

Vince places significance on giving back to the financial services industry and also to non-profit organizations that serve our community. Vince lives in Edmond, Oklahoma with his wife Laura and their four children.
